

Contact:
Holly Seher
314/537-1337
holly@pelarious.com
<http://www.pelarious.com>

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pelarious Releases the St. Louis Wireless Hot Spots Guide for the iPod

SAINT LOUIS, MO, April 7, 2005 – Available for immediate download from www.Pelarious.com is the free St. Louis Wireless Hot Spots Guide for viewing on iPod.

Pelarious first introduced the free St. Louis Wireless Hot Spots Guide in print and web versions in 2004. The new version for iPod enables laptop users the ability to locate available wireless Internet locations through the familiar iPod interface.

The list differentiates free access points from pay access points and is browsable by business type and geographical area. The guide includes Panera (St. Louis Bread Company) access points, as well as many restaurants, coffee shops, hotels, and neighborhoods throughout the St. Louis Metropolitan area.

“Now that many businesses provide wireless access, it’s great to be able to locate those business when I’m on the go,” said Patrick McGraw, Pelarious Guru. “A large part of my day is spent in transit between appointments. Our free guide is an innovative way to use my iPod and makes it easy for me to stay connected.”

About Pelarious

Pelarious, Inc. is an Information Technology consulting firm with expertise in Macintosh, Windows, Linux, UNIX, and Novell. The Pelarious consultants are Certified Members of the Apple Consultants Network and provide professional IT consultation, troubleshooting, workflow analysis, maintenance, training, network design, hardware/software installation, database development, and color management to business of all sizes.

###

Contact:
Holly Seher
314/537-1337
holly@pelarious.com
<http://www.pelarious.com>